K-Kids Scrapbook Contest

Rules

1. Each K-Kids club may enter a scrapbook containing pictures, souvenirs, examples, newspaper clippings, etc. of its activities throughout the current academic year.
2. The K-Kids club members should create and complete the scrapbook. K-Kids members who appear in photographs within the scrapbook, need to have submitted signed photo releases to the Kiwanis faculty advisor.
3. Each scrapbook must be submitted to the district administrator. Visit the K-Kids website at www.kkids.org to find district administrator contact information and entry deadlines.
4. The scrapbook must be divided into the following sections: service to school, service to community, fund-raising projects, assistance to Kiwanis family projects, and miscellaneous. Each section must be tabbed accordingly. The pages must also be numbered with a table of contents included at the beginning.
5. Entries may be submitted in a standard three-ring binder notebook, a scrapbook, or a homemade scrapbook. As long as some type of cover is holding the contents of the book, the entry will be accepted for judging. There are no size limitations, however, a large scrapbook is sometimes more difficult to take from place to place. When creating your scrapbook, think about all the possible ways the club might use the book and design your scrapbook with this in mind.
6. A completed scrapbook information sheet must be affixed to the inside front cover of the scrapbook.
7. The district administrator will submit the first place district winner to Kiwanis International. District Scrapbook winners will be kept during the summer and displayed at the K-Kids club exhibit booth during the Key Club, Circle K, and/or Kiwanis International conventions.
8. District Scrapbook winners will also be photographed and displayed on the K-Kids website.

Recognition

District scrapbook contest winners should plan on displaying their winning entry at a Kiwanis family function, preferably the Kiwanis district convention, at which time recognition is presented.

The overall first, second and third place scrapbook winners will receive recognition from Kiwanis International. This recognition is forwarded to the district administrator for presentation to award recipients during a Kiwanis function.

K-Kids Club Single Service Award

The Club Single Service Award provides recognition to individual K-Kids clubs for their single best service project.

Rules

1. To qualify for this award the K-Kids club must be in good standing.
2. A qualifying club single service project is defined as a club service project, planned, organized and produced by the K-Kids club occurring on a single day or consecutive days, or recurring on different days. In the case of a recurring project, it is the same project that must be repeated for the purpose of achieving the same service goal.
3. Only activities conducted during the current school year can be submitted. If a school that meets year round submits an entry the club project could have taken place anytime during that club's year of operation. The same holds true for community based clubs.
4. Photos and newspaper clips can be used to help explain the club's project.
5. Entries should be submitted on the provided entry form.
6. Entries are judged on the following criteria and may focus on the current year's service initiative:

Service need	(10 points)
Project plan	(20 points)
Project implementation	(20 points)
Final results	(25 points)
Public awareness	(10 points)
Member impact	(10 points)
Additional information	(5 points)

7. Entries should be forwarded to the district administrator. The District Committee on K-Kids will select a first, second, and third place district winner. Only first place district winners will be forwarded to Kiwanis International.
8. Any entry may be disqualified for reporting incorrect or false information.

Recognition

District single service contest winners should plan on displaying their winning entry at a Kiwanis family function, preferably the Kiwanis district convention, at which time recognition is presented.

The overall first, second and third place club single service winners will receive recognition from Kiwanis International. This recognition is forwarded to the district administrator for presentation to award recipients during a Kiwanis function.

The following judging criteria will assist club members with preparation of the Single Service entry and it will also assist the district administrator with judging.
