

2013-14 K-Kids Contest Themes

Eliminate Project contest themes are printed in green.

This year's themes include The Eliminate Project, a program that helps keep moms and babies healthy around the world. K-Kids members may submit an entry for the K-Kids theme and the Eliminate Project theme.

Essay

Share examples of how you live the core values each day.

Core values

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Caring :            | Showing concern, being kind, sharing, helping and giving.         |
| Inclusiveness:      | Welcoming differences in others and inviting all to join the fun. |
| Leadership:         | Guiding others and setting a good example.                        |
| Character building: | Doing the right thing even though it might not be popular.        |

Essay

Share how you would educate others about the Kiwanis Eliminate Project to encourage them to take action and support this worthy cause.

Speech

Explain what you can do to make a difference in someone's life and how doing this impacts you.

Art

Draw your interpretation of the K-Kids pledge.

As a K-Kid, I promise
To serve my neighborhood and my school,
I will show respect toward my environment,
And I will try to make the world a better place in which to live.

Art

Draw a mother and child showing their relationship through the years. Example: Mother and newborn, mother and grade school student, mother and teenager, mother and college graduate, mother and adult child. Use a comic strip format to show each important stage of life.

Club Single Service

With fellow members, tell about the club's best service project this school year.

Scrapbook

With fellow members, make a scrapbook that shows your club's service in your school and community.

Leadership Award

Any K-Kids member can be nominated for the Kiwanis International Foundation Leadership Award. The member is recognized for demonstrating outstanding leadership abilities.
