

K-Kids
Young leaders helping others

Welcome
K-Kids
Parents!

The logo for Kiwanis K-Kids features the word "Kiwaniis" in a small, blue, sans-serif font above the word "K-Kids" in a larger, bold, blue font. Below "K-Kids" is the tagline "Young Leaders Helping Others" in a smaller, blue font.

What is K-Kids?

A photograph of three children forming a human pyramid. One child is standing on the shoulders of two other children who are on their hands and knees. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera.

K-Kids

A photograph showing several children and an adult participating in a community service project. They are standing in front of a large yellow structure, possibly a recycling bin or a donation station, and appear to be sorting or organizing items.

K-Kids teaches members the value of helping others through participation in community service projects and club activities.

Servant leaders

A servant leader helps others succeed.

K-Kids core values

Character building

The ability to do the right thing, even when it might be the unpopular choice.

Leadership

The ability to listen, communicate, serve and guide others.

Inclusiveness

Accepting and welcoming the differences in others.

Caring

The act of being concerned about or interested in another person or situation.

Who sponsors K-Kids?

Kiwanis club members.

Kiwanis sponsorship

A Kiwanis club supports the K-Kids club.

A member from the Kiwanis club will attend every K-Kids meeting. This person is known as the Kiwanis advisor.

Kiwanis sponsorship

The Kiwanis advisor is available to assist K-Kids club members.

Other adults who will attend meetings include the faculty and parent advisor.

Kiwanis sponsorship

The Kiwanis club

Invites K-Kids club members to help with service projects.

Invites K-Kids club members to attend Kiwanis club meetings.

Provides programming for K-Kids meetings.

K-Kids faculty advisor

The faculty advisor

Attends all K-Kids meetings.

Assists club members with planning projects and running meetings.

Makes sure the club follows school rules.

K-Kids parent advisor

The parent advisor

Attends all K-Kids meetings.

Assists club members with planning projects and running meetings.

Assists the faculty advisor and club officers.

The Kiwanis Family

Kiwanis Kids
Builders Club
Key Club
Key Leader
Circle K
Aktion Club

K-Kids Service

Making greeting cards for American veterans.

K-Kids Service

Providing gifts for the needy during the holidays.

K-Kids Service

Helping at the school fair.

K-Kids Service

Milam Elementary School K-Kids Club
Tupelo, Mississippi

Gave water to Race for the Cure race participants.

K-Kids Service

Fort Caroline Elementary School K-Kids Club
Jacksonville, Florida

Spread mulch during a school cleanup project.

How can parents help?

Stay informed

Visit the K-Kids Web site
kiwaniskids.org

Talk with your child

Reflection

Reliving the service project or activity.

Participate in Kiwanis events

K-Kid service projects
Kiwanis One Day
Kiwanis Read Around the World

Let's talk

- I learned that...
- I was surprised that...
- I was pleased that...
- I was amazed that...
- I hope or wish that...
- I am most looking forward to...

Thank you